

Keepers of the Flame, June 2016

"You Brits are mad".

The consensus

When I arrived

Thursday night;

Whilst I agree

It must be said

That US politicians

Are as bad

As ours. But

I'm here to renew

Old friendships

Not

To fight

New wars!

So what is

Plan B or Plan C?

At the 12th

Least anal conference

In the world.

With cheers for Dennis

From Chip and Dale

Oops that's Doug.

Renewal of each

Heart and Spirit

Listening with

Our souls

To pass the flame.

Starting at

A humane time

In the morning

Remember

The answer is

"Yes"! Or even "Yes, ma'am".

It's about being here

In the now. With

Creative Brilliance

Keeping the flame

Burning. Thank the

Founders - old flames

And new flames

Welcome!

And memory of
Ned. Diving deep.
With Heroes
And sidekicks
And, as he said
"It's just love".
We love his memory
Let's add
Laughter
Even
For no reason;
OK guys -
You can cry now.

As a curmudgeonly Brit
It's no laughing matter.
My seed is beanstalk
By which to escape.

My left brain thinks
My right brain
Is illogical
My right brain agrees.

I'm struggling -
My left brain thinks
I went from child brain
To adult brain
My right brain thinks
I'm still in my child brain
Total ouch!

A very satisfactory
Segment with Mark;
Let music be
The food
Of creativity and
Dream
Without limits;
I am still working out
How I dream
About my memories.

Creative Brilliance in your Life as a teenager
But, I don't remember
Which decade!
I can't imagine -

But then I'm really
Left-brained.
My mate John didn't
Tell me about girls
Until it was nearly Too late. Imagine that.

Let us sing, Keepers.
Faithfully growing.
Brings one tear
To one eye.

[Day 2]

Recognition
One of the greatest
Human needs.

Let's recognise our Own right brain;
Be guided by Joff's
Left brain instructions
To look within us
And to remain
An artist
As you grow up.

My art
If it can be called
Art
Is S H one T
And that's not being
Self critical
It's being true
To myself.

Go -
And see
The world
Through your iPhone
Or at least
Through
Different eyes
Non-weeping
Of course.

So, Cindy
The pressure's on
We have to go

By 4 p.m.
That's 16:00
To the Brits
In or out
Of Europe.

Great to have Sue
With us
This year!
And here's Mark
Exposing
Our private parts
To excite us all
Logistically
Of course.
As a Brit
I would like to press
The 'quite like' button
If there was one.
And now, go forth
And fuel
Your future flame
With what you've Learned
About yourselves.
